Of whom in the church, Sabbath schools and everywhere, we sing this song and ask this question:

Jesus when on earth sojourning
Loved them with a wondrous love;
And will He to Heaven returning
Faithful to his blessing prove?

Among quotations from familiar Gospel Hymns are verses with these words:

Precious promise God has given, etc.
'Tis the promise of God, etc.
Take the name of Jesus with you etc.
Blest be the tie that binds our hearts to Christ, etc.
Unfold thy precepts to my mind
And cleanse my blinded eyes to find thy promise, etc.

Considering the fact that 1899 years have passed away since Christ came to redeem us from the law which we transgress in the ten commandments given by his servant Moses and from which "once for all Christ has made us free." Where is this promise, the token, the sign, whereof many Scripture passages assert unconditionally?

"Ye are witnesses of these things," Jesus also says, "Ye are my witnesses"—not may be, nor might be, nor should be, but "Ye are my witnesses," says He, "of this promise, this sacrifice, I made for you."

Bearing also in mind the words of 2d Peter, iii, 3-4; Isaiah, viii, 18; also Romans, xv, 21; ix:24; xi, 25-27.

I will give twenty dollars in gold to the first person in Flagstaff who will tell me how, or in what manner we are witnesses of these truths in the nineteenth century and bear daily testimony by memorial of the facts. That these laws were given us by His chosen servant and Jesus will redeem us from their curse. Yea, by the token of that babe to whom the star of Bethlehem led those wondering shepherds from the plains to lay their treasures at His feet.

Contest open until August 20, 1899.

Yours for truths,

MADAM E. WILSON.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly, and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at the Pioneer Drug Store.
